Description:

Protect your camera investment from the rigors of outdoor exposure. The S-Type Base is engineered to protect all brands of traditional "brick" style or static cameras. The Base model is IP67 rated for protection against dust, insects, and extreme marine conditions.

The S-Type housing utilizes all the features of our popular D Series products, into a complete air/water tight system solution for today's sensitive CCTV, megapixel, HD or other long-body cameras. Dotworkz patented all-in-one, easy to install engineered form factor, seals internal components with no air exchange, and is constructed of the toughest Lexan/Polycarbonate materials.

The S-Type is available in all Dotworkz rugged environmental kits: COOLDOME™, Ring of Fire, Tornado and Heater/Blower.
